

FOR YOU, BEFORE WE MEET

The bridal pack

A few things we've learned, and a guest list to keep you organised.

SOMETHING KEPT, JUST FOR YOU

01

BEFORE WE MEET

Gathering what you love

Before we meet, it helps to gather three to five things you love. They don't need to be favours, or even from a wedding.

PATTERNS

A tile, a fabric, the lace on a dress, a carved door.

COLOURS

A photo of a place,
a flower, a scarf.
Two or three is plenty.

SHAPES

An arch, a bottle, a box you kept from somewhere.

WORDS

A line you'd like your guests to read, in any language.

Screenshots are perfect. Send them to us before the meeting, or bring them on your phone.

Every piece is designed for you, made as a sample for you to hold, and then produced and finished by hand. That takes time.

1 WELL AHEAD

Book our conversation

Book about 12–16 weeks before your celebration.

2 DURING OUR CONVERSATION

Your concept

Your concept arrives instantly within our conversation, in 3D on your own private page.

3 ABOUT A WEEK

Your sample

The sample takes about a week to produce once the sample fee is paid. You hold it and check every detail before anything is produced.

4 AFTER YOUR SIGN-OFF

Made by hand

Our family assembles and checks every piece by hand, and we deliver on the agreed date.

CLOSE TO YOUR DATE

If your date is closer than 6 weeks, tell us anyway. We'll say honestly what is possible.

HOW IT UNFOLDS

Timing, honestly

03 · COUNTING

How many favours

Most families order one favour per guest, and a few spares.

- 1 Count guests, not invitations. Children often receive their own.
- 2 Add about 4% for spares: a box gets knocked, a guest arrives unexpectedly.
- 3 For welcome boxes, count rooms or households instead of guests.

FOR EXAMPLE

150 guests + 6 spares
